Her Idea of a Poet.

Walking home from school the other day some children were discussing the perfection and usefulness of their respective fathers. "My father's the best man in the world," said one little girl; "he is a minister. He makes people go to church."

"Mine is the best," piped up another; "he's a doctor. He makes sick people well so they can go to church."

Three or four more enlarged upon the benefit the world derived from their fathers, when finally a sweet, blue-eyed little girl said: "My papa's the best of all. He's a poet."

"A poet!" said another, in sympathetic surprise; "why, a poet isn't a profession! It's a disease!"
